IN MEMORY OF DAVIS. BLOODY BATTLE FOUGHT

Monument to President of the Confederacy Unveiled Brought About by Introduction of Moonshine Whisky

AT OLD DOMINION CAPITAL INTO A MOUNTAIN CAMP.

Scene of Great Impressiveness While Daughter and Two Grandsons of the Distinguished Departed Unveiled the Tribute of the Southland.

Richmond, June 3.—An everlasting memorial of Hon. Jefferson Davis, president of the Confederate States of America, was unveiled here Monday as the crowning feature of the 1907 reunion. The ceremony was made the occasion for a grand military pageant in which every veteran in gray who was physically able and many a one who was not participated with energy and enthusiasm which defied the life sapping of years that have gone since he bore arms for the south. Drawing aside the veil which draped the figure representing the veterans' beloved leader and the first gun presidential salute which immediately followed were signals for an outburst of cheering which was swollen by the thunderous applause by sons and daughters of the veterans.

The streets were brilliantly decorated. There was scarcely a house or business building that was not profusely decorated with Confederate colors and bunting. This was especially true of Franklin street and Monument avenue, on line of march for the procession to the Davis monument. The grand parade to unveiling was at 11:30 o'clock. The military feature was similar to the parade on the first day of the reunion, when a statue to Major General J. E. B. Stuart was unveiled. The procession was under command of General Smith Bolling of Petersburg, Va., the chief marshal. Along the line of march a dense crowd lined the streets, windows were filled and many house tops crowded with cheering and singing groups. In the great concourse of veteran organizations, which proceeded in perfect order, were a constant succession of bands and file and drum corps.

Following the veteran section came the carriage division, carrying many women to whom Confederate soldiers owe nearly every memorial that has been erected in honor of the heroes of the Confederacy. That the south appreciates what the women have done was attested by the cheering which greeted their procession. On the line of march the statues of General Lee and Stuart. The military saluted, they cheered and the bands played "Dixie" and "Maryland." The procession continued out the avenue to Davis monument, where a dense crowd had assembled. So great was this congregation it was with great difficulty a passage was cleared for the speakers and other distinguished visitors to reach the stand.

The ceremonies opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. William Jones of Richmond, chaplain general. The first address was by Governor Swanson of Virginia, and he was followed by Mayor McCarthy of Richmond, who introduced General Evans as orator of the day. At the conclusion of this address, the mayor spoke briefly accepting on behalf of Richmond the sacred trust imposed upon it by the whole south.

Mrs. J. A. Hayes of Colorado Springs, Colo., daughter of Mr. Davis, then pulled the cord that held the canvas shroud that covered the bronze statue. Her two young sons, grandsons of the Confederate president, caught the two cords to complete the unveiling. The monument was one never to be forgotten in its impressiveness. One moment—not more than a second or two—there was absolute silence and then cheering burst forth and the bands played the Richmond Howitzers began firing the presidential salute.

The ceremonies were not ended at the unveiling, but the multitude could not be kept quiet. The people forming in immediate circle around the monument, sang and sang and saw garlands placed on the pedestal of the monument. Norman P. Randolph of Richmond, chairman of the central committees of the Jefferson Davis Monument association made an address of welcome to which response was made by Mrs. W. J. Behan of Mississippi, president of the Confederate Memorial association. Mrs. George S. Holmes of South Carolina made a report of the work done. Representative John Sharpe Williams of Mississippi read a response that had been prepared by Mrs. Lizzie George Henderson, president general of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

Garlands were then placed on the monument by officers of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, Confederate States Memorial association, United Confederate Veterans, United Sons of Confederate Veterans and Jefferson Davis Monument association.

After the benediction by the chaplain general floral tributes were offered by the public.

Graves Decorated.

New Orleans, June 3.—Jefferson Davis' birthday was a double holiday here. Banks and many commercial houses closed. Confederate organizations had a parade and decorated with flowers the graves of departed comrades.

Snowed Sunday.

New York, June 3.—There was a light fall of snow Sunday.

Attack Was Made on Roberts and His Force, Former Says, Because Stuff Was Barred, and One Man Killed and Others Wounded.

Chattanooga, June 2.—News of a bloody battle in the mountains of Blount county reached here through a special telegram from Knoxville to the Times. Sheriff Matthews of Knoxville went to Blount county looking for W. R. Roberts, a walking boss employed in construction camp No. 5 of the Campbell company, located thirty-five miles from Maryville, in the mountains, on an extension which the Southern railway is building from Maryville into North Carolina. Roberts was arrested by the local police at Lonsdale, a suburb of Knoxville.

Roberts claims that as boss of the railroad camp he has tried hard to keep moonshine whisky away from his workmen. Several mountaineers have been just as persistent in trying to sell the stuff. Saturday afternoon Roberts states, a large party of natives began an attack on the camp, shooting at first from a distance of 200 yards. He would not let his men reply to the fire until the party came within the camp, when, he says, a fusillade of shots resulted, and "Black Jim" Burchfield was killed, and perhaps several others shot.

Roberts, fearing assassination, rode all night through the mountains. He says he does not know who killed Burchfield. The deputy sheriff from Blount had a different story of the affair. He had been informed that the trouble between Burchfield and Roberts was largely personal, and that Roberts shot and killed Burchfield.

TOO QUICK FOR NEGROES.

White Man Kills Two Blacks Who Sought His Life.

Augusta, Ga., June 3.—Joe and Tellman Barnes, negroes, aroused J. B. Morgan, a white farmer, by knocking at his front door. Morgan's suspicions were aroused and he went through the rear and around the house, finding one negro standing on the steps with a drawn revolver and the other crouched by the door with a knife. The negro was ordered by Morgan to drop his pistol, but attempted to fire. He was shot dead by Morgan. Joe Barnes rushed upon Morgan with a knife, and was fatally wounded by a second shot from the farmer.

Judge Eve was notified that threats were being made by negroes against Morgan, and he ordered the county police force to send a detachment of guards from the stockade to proceed to the vicinity and preserve order.

HORRIBLE DROP.

Balloon Struck by Lightning and Occupant Falls One Mile.

Rome, June 3.—A tragic incident took place during a review of the troops by King Victor Emanuel and Queen Helena. As a part of the maneuvers a military balloon was sent up to a height of 700 feet with Capt. Ullivelli in the car. A storm which had been coming up burst suddenly and the thousand of spectators were horrified to see a flash of lightning strike the gas bag. There was an enormous burst of flame and a terrific detonation and the collapsed balloon, with its dangling car, fell to the earth a mile from the scene of the review. Crowds of persons rushed in the direction where the balloon had fallen. Captain Ullivelli was found alive, but unconscious. He was placed in an automobile and rushed to a hospital where he died without regaining consciousness.

NO LONGER A BAR.

Under Certain Conditions Bryan Would Be Presidential Candidate.

Richmond, June 3.—In an interview with the Times-Dispatch Mr. Bryan declared that the matter of section should no longer be a bar to a man's nomination for the presidency by the Democratic party. He explained why he could not regard President Roosevelt as a Democrat, and said that under certain conditions he (Bryan) would be a candidate for the nomination, that is, if the party demanded it, and that if he considered it for the good of the party.

Mr. Bryan addressed 4,000 persons Sunday, his subject being "The Prince of Peace." He dined with Governor Swenson.

Statement Sent.

New York, June 3.—The Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America, through its executive officers, sent to each member of board of directors of the Western Union Telegraph company a statement of grievances and requests for change of conditions. Copies were also sent to Mrs. Russell Sage and Miss Helen Gould. Officials of the company, and representatives of the union both said they do not believe a strike will result.

THE MORNING EAGLE

Entered at the Postoffice in Bryan, Texas as second-class matter.

BY CARNES & WALLACE

BRYAN, TEXAS, JUNE 4, 1907

I. & G. N. BRAZOS BOTTOM BRANCH.

Effort Will Likely be Made to Induce the Road to Build from Point West of Bryan.

No meeting of the business league was held last night, but the few who gathered at K. of P. hall discussed the feasibility of a branch leaving the I. & G. N. at some point west of Bryan, extending to the Brazos river, across and down the bottom. It is believed that right-of-way can be easily secured, and that conditions are such that the line can be built by the I. & G. N. at comparatively small cost. It would unquestionably be a paying proposition for the road both in freight and passenger business; would counteract the effect of the building of the proposed new road down the bottom on the other side of the river to Brenham, and would be a great thing for Bryan.
It is probable, therefore, that a committee of some of Bryan's leading business men will visit Palestine in a few days and lay the matter before General Manager Trice, and that while there the matter of making Bryan a full freight division point on the Ft. Worth division will also be discussed. The Eagle will be glad to see this move made. The importance of it will readily be seen.

UNION SERVICE AT BAPTIST CHURCH.

Immense Crowd Was Present Sunday Night—Addressed by Dr. West and Rev. J. J. Tatum. Splendid Music.

Sunday night witnessed a special service of great interest at the Baptist church, the services at the other churches participating being omitted. The church was filled and many were unable to find room. The service was conducted under the direction of the pastor, Dr. Geo. B. Butler, who read a scripture lesson relating to the subjects of the addresses. Splendid music was a prominent feature, with several numbers by the Howard Payne quartette, and solos by Miss Marie Adams and Mr. Boaz of the quartette. It was a special pleasure to the many friends of Miss Adams to hear the selection she rendered so beautifully.
Dr. West, pastor of the Presbyterian church, spoke on "The Imminence of God," and Rev. J. J. Tatum on "The Expulsive Power of New Affection." Though necessarily not exhaustive in the discussion of the subjects, on account of the lack of time in such a service, the discourses were no less complete and helpful in the presentation of the truth and its application to the daily life. The service was such in its entirety as gives a strong spiritual uplift to the thoughtful mind, and might be repeated from time to time with great advantage.

ATTENDANCE INCREASING.

The Chautauqua Course has Grown Daily More Popular—Education Day Today.

The attraction of the Chautauqua program yesterday were the lectures morning and evening of Count Sobieski of Los Angeles, Cal. A native of Poland, the son of a patriot who gave his life for the cause of liberty, an exile from his native land from his youth, a scholar, thinker, traveler and withal a ready speaker and a polished gentleman, Count Sobieski's visit was esteemed a treat by those who met him and heard him speak or enjoyed his rare conversational powers. He spoke in the afternoon on "Reminiscences of the Civil War," and incidentally paid a tribute to the memory of Jefferson Davis, the anniversary of whose birthday was celebrated yesterday. In the evening Count

Hunter & Chatham

Men's Furnishers

Sobeiski told the interesting story of the rise and fall of the Polish republic and the struggle of her people for freedom.

It was a matter of general regret that illness prevented Miss Edna Nash Thompson, reader, from filling her engagement here yesterday. A vocal number by Mrs. C. L. Hilger in the afternoon and one by Mrs. W. C. Davis in the evening gave much pleasure.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local. Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional. The former--Dr. Shoop's Night Cure--is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, tissue, and blood ailments. The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, cases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative--Tablets or Liquid--as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

Heart Strength

Heart strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds; it strengthens; it offers real, genuine heart help. If you would have strong hearts, strong digestion, strengthen those nerves—re-establish them as needed, with

SUFFOCATED AND BURNED

Awful Fate That Overtook a Family of Three.

Newark, N. J., June 3.—Three lives were lost and thousands of dollars' damage done in a fire which started shortly before 2 o'clock Monday morning in the Newark Turn Verein hall at 188 William street. The known dead are Joseph Honoka, janitor, burned to death in his apartments; Mrs. Joseph Honoka, his wife, overcome by smoke and burned to death; child of janitor, overcome by smoke and burned to death. The flames were fanned by a strong northeast wind and spread with rapidity and for a time a conflagration of serious proportions was threatened. Eight families occupied the floors above the hall and policemen were kept busy rescuing women and children.

STARTED IN STEERAGE.

Bedding and Great Amount of Glucose Consumed by the Flames.

New York, June 3.—Fire on the White Star steamer Oceanic, which was discovered in the steerage shortly after 1 o'clock Monday morning was not brought under control for two hours. The fire started among the steerage berths and spread to the cargo. In the afterhold were 187 barrels of glucose, which burned like oil, and that part of the cargo was soon entirely aflame. All bedding and other perishable fittings in the steerage were destroyed in addition to a quantity of freight. The origin of the fire is unknown, but suspicion prevails on dock that it was the result of incendiarism.

PRIEST PERSISTENT.

Two Hundred Men Fail to Drag Him From Residence.

Cleveland, June 3.—Two hundred men bombarded the residence of Rev. Vitus Hribar, pastor of St. Vitus' Roman Catholic church, following the noonday service. Volley after volley of stones were hurled against the door and through the windows. Thirty arrests were made by the police after a riot call had been turned in. The priest, who was summoned to the street by a ruse, withstood the assault until a mob attempted to drag him from his porch. Then he took refuge inside the house.

Feeling against him has resulted in a number of disorderly demonstrations recently, but he has refused to leave the parish.

WRECK UPON SUNSET.

Eight Coaches Leave the Track and Turn Over.

Del Rio, Tex., June 3.—Near Lozier, ninety-five miles from this place, a Southern Pacific passenger train from California to New Orleans was wrecked Sunday afternoon. All eight coaches left the track and were overturned. There was one Pullman sleeper, but its occupants escaped injury.

W. B. Jacks, druggist of Sanderson, was instantly killed. He was thrown through a window and the chair car fell upon his body, causing instant death. His body was crushed to a pulp. He was en route to Del Rio to spend Sunday at the home of a young lady to whom he was to have been married this month. He had made the trip every Sunday night for several months and was well known to the trainmen.

Chester Aldrich, aged twelve years, of Big Springs, Tex., was so badly hurt that there is no hope for his recovery. His whole body and head were badly crushed and he was injured internally.

Seventeen other persons were hurt, some seriously.

The cause of the wreck is unknown. The train had just rounded a curve. Mr. Jacks was on his way to Del Rio to visit a young lady, whom he was soon to marry.

SMITH SPRINGS SURPRISE.

Floods County With Money He Had Long Hidden Away.

Pulaski, Tenn., June 3.—Stricken with the fear that he would be murdered for his money, Willis Smith, an aged resident of the Fourth district, has flooded the county with money which he has been hiding for many years. The money, amounting to fully $30,000, consists of half dollars and quarters of the coinage of two generations ago, and does not give evidence of having been handled.

Smith, who is eighty-four years of age, kept his money in fruit jars about his home on the left prong of Shoal creek, until some one told him that he was running the risk of being murdered by keeping it in his home. He then hurried with it to a local bank and the flood of old coins followed.

Some years ago Smith put some money in a bank, but before he went out some customer handed the cashier a check which the latter paid from the pile of bills Smith had just deposited. Smith saw this, and withdrew his money, saying he would not do business with such a concern. From that day until two weeks ago he never patronized a bank, but kept his money at home.

PECULIAR POSITION.

Sheriff Refuses to Countenance the Sale of Liquor.

Parkersburg, W. Va., June 3.—Assistant Tax Commissioner Darst has gone to Randolph county on a peculiar mission. Sheriff Helmick of Randolph county is a strict prohibitionist. He has absolutely refused to receive any money for the state from liquor licenses, saying that neither privately nor officially will he be a party to any transaction which countenances the liquor business.

The saloon keepers there are much worked up, and the assistant commissioner does not know just how to proceed to compel the sheriff to obey the law.

To Stop Piles Try This.

Piles get instant relief, when Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment is applied. It's a Pile Cure, remember, and it is good for nothing else whatever except piles. General Ointments, for many uses, can't possibly cure piles. A pile ointment must be specific. Every aim of its maker must be directed specifically toward piles alone. Says Dr. Shoop, "I make three valuable ointments, and yet, one only—Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment—will bring help to pile sufferers." Even then, in old chronic cases, originating because of a torpid liver, with biliousness, I prescribe my Dr. Shoop's Restorative internally while using Magic Ointment locally or externally. Keep in mind this fact, please, that the large blood vessels of the liver originate in the walls of the rectum, where piles arise. Obstruct these vessels in the liver and piles instantly appear. Dr. Shoop's Restorative corrects stomach and liver sluggishness, hence its value as an aid to Magic Ointment in the treatment of obstinate cases of piles. None genuine without Dr. Shoop's name on the package. Sold at 50 cents by
